THE BACKBONE OF LAMINATED PANELS

Franklin A&P's versatile line of laminating adhesives sets the standard for hot and cold press applications across veneers, laminates, and composite panels.

FIRE-RATED PANELS

LAMINATING 465 is designed for fire-rated MDF applications when strength, compliance, and safety are paramount.

- No-added formaldehyde
- Adheres to borated substrates
- Hot press and cold press compatible
- Fire code compliant for schools & libraries

HEATED LAMINATION

With versatile, high-solids performance, LAMINATING 50 combines strong bond strength with production flexibility.

- No-added formaldehyde
- Bonds HPL to particleboard or fiberboard
- Hot press, rotary press, and spray application
- Excellent green and tensile strength

COLD PRESS LAMINATION

A cost-effective solution for large laminators—LAMINATING 25 balances long open time with quick bonding for cold press success.

- No-added formaldehyde
- Long assembly time, short press time
- Optimized for cold pressing operations
- FDA 175.105 compliant

DECORATIVE METAL

Designed for decorative metals, LAMINATING 35 offers fast tack, high solids, and low VOCs—making it the premium choice for panels, cabinets and case goods.

- Fast-setting and high initial tack
- Reduces warping in metal bonding
- NAF, Low VOCs, Zero HAPs
- Meets LEED and SCAQMD standards

Blum suffers theft during show

The first day of the AWFS Fair started well for Blum. The booth was swamped with customers and potential customers. Then the morning took a negative turn.

According to Debbie Cannon, vice president of marketing, Blum Inc., the company's new product, the Ecodrill, was stolen shortly after the show opened at 9 a.m. on July 22.

A Blum representative told Woodworking Network that the Ecodrill was never recovered. The company was able to have two replacements shipped overnight, and by July 23 the Visionary Award finalist product was available for viewing at the booth.

The Ecodrill is a portable system designed for precise drilling of hinge cup holes.

If you want to see the Ecodrill, and learn more about the product, visit Blum at Booth #3901.

WCA recognizes students' skills

Scott Nelson, president of the Woodwork Career Alliance, presents Green-level credentials to Tyson Oswald and Joshua Scism, students at Cedar Ridge High School in Hillsborough, North Carolina. Joining in the celebration is their woodworking instructor Avery Pipken. For more information, visit Booth # 3573

Visionary products take home coveted award at AWFS Fair

Nine, yes nine, exciting products were honored July 23 as winners of the AWFS Fair 2025 Visionary New Product Awards

"I'd also like to present nine winners of this year's Visionary Awards, said Angelo Gangone, executive vice president of AWFS, which owns the AWFS Fair. Yes, nine winner, not eight. "This is the first time this ever happened, but we actually have a tie in one category, so that category got two awards instead of one."

The winners are:

Visionary Award: Components

- Better Vacuum Cups Inc. for the SS series vacuum cup

Visionary Award: Machinery over $50,000 category

- Felder Group USA for the Format 4 – Tempora F-1000 high-capacity edgebander

Visionary Award: Machinery under $50,000 category

- Sharper Tools for the Shaper Bench Pilot

Visionary Award: Power Tools

- Apollo Sprayers International Inc. for the AtomiZer Black Edition spray gun

Visionary Award: Software

- Advanced Dimensions for the Leica icon iCS
- Hexagon ALPHA CAM in the field machine to machine (template to CNC)

Visionary Awards: Tooling

- Make it Snappy Tools Inc. for the iCard Indexable Carbide Countersinks

Visionary Awards: General Products

- ICRO Coatings S.p.A. Isocyanate-free and formaldehyde free 2K acrylic solvent topcoat
- PaintLine for the Pro Face Frame and Door Mover

The best of the best

These winners beat out the thousands of products on the show floor to create

Angelo Gangone, AWFS executive vice president

a list of 21 finalists. From that list of finalists, the nine winners were selected in seven categories. The categories were Components, Software, Tooling, Machinery under $50K, Machinery over $50K, Power Tools, and a General category. (Two awards were presented in the Software category due to a tie. Two awards were also presented in the General Category.)

The Visionary New Product Awards recognizes exhibitors for innovative and new-to-market products, including any product that has been introduced to the industry since the last AWFS Fair in 2023.

Winners were selected by a panel of third-party judges. The judges looked for creativity and innovation, and evaluated the products on quality, production impact, practicality, innovation, and user-friendliness.

Here is information on the winners in each of the seven categories:

COMPONENTS

SS Series Vacuum Cup

The 2025 Visionary Awards

PVC double sided vacuum cups will allow your shop to do solid woodwork or edge detail by raising the material off the table on top of your existing spoil board. Maximize the flexibility of your vacuum table with BVC double sided vacuum cups. Great for routers with a C axis or even 5 axis large routers. The cup comes in three standard heights 105, 150 and 200mm.

AWFS[®] Fair Woodworking innovations hit big in Vegas

The global woodworking community hits the jackpot when AWFS Fair takes over Las Vegas, July 22-25 at the Las Vegas Convention Center's West Hall. Show hours are Tuesday-Thursday, 9 a.m. – 5 p.m., and Friday 9 a.m.-2 p.m.

Under the theme “Thrive in 2025,” the AWFS Fair offers a firsthand look at the latest technology, equipment, supplies, and services in the marketplace. With thousands of products on display by approximately 500 exhibitors, the AWFS Fair is designed to help manufacturers, fabricators, contractors, installers, and designers significantly grow their businesses. The biennial show is owned by the Association of Woodworking & Furnishings Suppliers (AWFS).

AWFS Trade Show Committee Chair Karl Frey stressed the show's importance to those involved in the cabinetry, furniture, architectural millwork, retail fixtures, closets, components, and other industry segments.

“Beyond a trade show, AWFS Fair immerses attendees in the future of woodworking,” he noted. “Discover cutting-edge machinery, tools, and materials while engaging in WED Talks, panel discussions, and hands-on demonstrations designed to sharpen your skills and industry knowledge. AWFS is committed to education and workforce development.”

The AWFS Fair College of Woodworking Knowledge offers a comprehensive selection of seminars on the topics of Business, Technology, Production, Workforce, and Educator. Woodworking Network's Will Sampson, Michaelle Bradford, and David Biggs are among the industry experts offering insights and information on a variety of subjects, including: Pricing for Profitability, From Cabinets to Closets (both on Tuesday), Pricing Workshop, Beyond the Algorithm: Smarter Social AWFS Fair provides attendees with a firsthand look at new products in the marketplace.

Media Strategies for Real Results (both on Wednesday), and So You Want to Start a Woodworking Business: 7 Things You Need to Know (Thursday). Register for all the CWWK sessions at tinyurl.com/3x85a7b9.

The always popular WED Talks (Wood Education) take place from 11 a.m.-12 p.m. at the AWFS Live Stage. They include: Cloud-Powered Millwork: Bridging Craftsmanship and Innovation by Brian Hamilton of New Horizons Data (Tuesday); Understanding the Custom Woodworking Business from a Contractor's Perspective by Geoffrey Finkel, Source-Book.com (Wednesday); and How Can We Get Younger Generations in the Woodworking Industry? by Matt Buell, M Buell Studio (Thursday). Also, check out the Rapid Fire presentations providing a quick take on some of the must-see technologies, hardware, and software new products by innovative companies.

show's duration.

First Time Exhibitors Showcase: New products by exhibitors will also be on display throughout the show in the Grand Lobby of the West Hall of the convention center.

Fresh Wood Student Design Competition: The competition showcases furniture designed and built by students from U.S. high schools and post-secondary schools, with prizes awarded to the top entries in the categories of seating, tables, casegoods, design for production, open category and 2025's special theme of Spin N' Shape. Prizes are also awarded for Best of Show and the People's Choice Award. Finalist entries can be viewed at Booth 3871, with winners announced Thursday, July 24 at 4 p.m. at the AWFS Fair Live stage.

Additional new and returning features on tap include the Tool Tour showcase of portable power tools offered by various exhibitors, Biomass Block, designed to connect biomass equipment exhibitors with attendees looking to turn waste into biochar and energy, and The Safety Zone, featuring companies that carry products focused on workplace gear, job-site and personal protective equipment, as well as those offering safety resources.

Details and educational opportunities are available at AWFSfair.org.

"AWFS remains dedicated to supporting woodworking professionals through education, advocacy, and industry growth," Frey said. "As we gather for the 2025 AWFS Fair, we celebrate our community's resilience and the innovations shaping our future."

Woodworking Network at AWFS Fair

Stop by Booth 1563 and meet the staff of Woodworking Network – FDMC and Closets & Organized Storage magazines – who will be out in force before and during the AWFS Fair.

To start, join Woodworking Network on July 21 at two all-day symposia. CNC Bootcamp addresses the needs of companies new to CNC manufacturing, and the Closets symposium features speakers/panels of interest to designers, fabricators, architects, and manufacturers involved in closets and organized storage. Register at AWFSFair.org.

Also on July 21, the Leadership Reception celebrates the 2025 Wood Industry 40 Under 40 honorees. Network with current and past 40 Under 40 honorees, industry VIPS, and other distinguished guests as we celebrate the next generation of wood products professionals. Register at tinyurl.com/2025-wwn. The 40 Under 40 Class of 2025 is sponsored by Paint-Line and Pennsylvania Lumbermens Mutual Insurance Co. (PLM).

During the show, don't forget to check out the popular CWWK seminars, including those by Woodworking Network's Will Sampson, Michaelle Bradford, and David Biggs. CWWK seminars are on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. Register at tinyurl.com/3x85a7b9.

AWFS[®] Fair 10 tips to get the most out of AWFS Fair

AWFS Fair is the biggest woodworking show in North America this year, and that presents a similarly big challenge to attendees. Here are 10 tips to steer you in the right direction.

1. Have a plan.

Decide who you want to see, what you want to learn, what you are thinking of buying, and who you want to meet or talk to well before the show. Then develop a plan and schedule to do all of them.

2. Be strategic.

Grab the show map and plot a strategy for what order you want to do everything. You'll want to organize as many of your booth visits or appointments in a logical order as possible. See where all of your target booths are, then plan to see them in order.

3. Wear comfortable shoes!

This is really important. You are going to be on your feet all day walking from booth to booth. In past years, I've personally logged more than 30,000 steps while walking the show.

4. Pack a bag

Many exhibitors offer tote bags, which are handy, but a small, empty backpack is easier on your body. If you are the kind who really likes to fill up on brochures and samples, you might even consider a roller bag or folding cart.

5. Schedule your time.

The show floor is only open to attendees from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Tuesday, July 22, through Thursday, July 24, and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Friday, July 25. Sit down with the schedule and your list of targeted things you want to accomplish. Then start filling out your calendar. It's best to start with educational programs because they have fixed time slots. Then, put down your own scheduled appointments, trying to keep them physically close together to limit long walks.

6. Make education a priority.

Too many people attending AWFS focus only on the exhibitor booths and don't take advantage of education offerings. These are great chances to get first-hand instruction from experts and for you to ask important questions to get the answers you need to move your business forward.

7. Networking.

The AWFS Fair is prime opportunity for you to expand your network and to have face-to-face interactions with peers and experts who potentially can help you solve your problems or expand your business. Associations are probably the leading tool for networking. Most industry associations will have booths at the show. If you are not a member, sign up. If you are a member, hang out at the booth for a bit and meet other members.

8. Use your phone.

Download the show app. Schedule your appointments. Set reminders. Take pictures of key items. Scan QR codes.

Make notes. Connect with contacts throughout the show.

9. Prepare to buy.

If you plan to buy a big ticket item requiring financing, do your due diligence before the show. Get prequalified from a lender. Figure out what you really can afford. Talk to your accountant about tax implications, lease or buy options, and research additional costs. That includes things like tooling, accessories, rigging, shipping, dust collection, and training that add to the total cost. A prepared buyer is a smart buyer.

10. Be open to surprises.

Walking a big trade show gives you the chance to run into something totally surprising that was not on your search list. Some of those surprises could be life changing. You could meet new people or learn about a new technique or technology. You could discover new products, maybe even a whole new product line you could offer. Something you see could change long-held opinions and send you in an entirely new direction.

For visitors attending the 2025 AWFS Fair, downtime in Vegas this year offers new options for fun and relaxation. From immersive pop-culture experiences to sporting events and a wide range of new dining concepts, the city is buzzing with fresh opportunities and things to do.

New Vegas attractions

Formula 1 enthusiasts can rev their engines at the Grand Prix Plaza, North America's largest Formula 1 attraction. They recently launched "Grand Prix Sundays" watch parties, showcasing each Formula 1 Grand Prix race throughout the summer, broadcast live or via replay.

Palm Tree Beach Club at MGM Grand Hotel & Casino is a brand-new luxury day club. It offers a vibrant tropical energy, private cabanas, and world-class entertainment.

Athena at Night at Resorts World Las Vegas provides an after-dark experience. Starting Wednesday, June 18, and running from 8-11 p.m. on select evenings throughout the summer, guests can swim, sip on cocktails, and unwind at the Athena Infinity Ultra Pool.

And for a more relaxed evening under the stars, Dive-In Movie Nights at M Pool at M Resort Spa Casino are back with a brand-new 800-square-foot LED screen this season, showcasing blockbusters like "Incredibles 2" on Friday, July 25.

The Hall of Excellence at Fontainebleau Las Vegas was unveiled by seven-time Super Bowl champion Tom Brady, sportscasting legend Jim Gray, and Fontainebleau Development Chairman and CEO Jeffrey Soffer. This unique museum honors the greatest moments in the history of sports and entertainment.

Fans of the popular sitcom "Friends" are in for a treat with two new attractions. The Friends Experience: The One in Vegas officially opens its newest flagship location at MGM Grand on July 23. This immersive experience, created by Warner Bros. Discovery Global Experiences, Original X Productions, and Warner Bros. Television Group, transports guests into the world of "Friends". Fans can explore iconic moments, discover behind-the-scenes content, and capture photos within life-size set recreations, including Central Perk, Monica and Rachel's apartment, and Joey and Chandler's apartment. Exclusive to the MGM Grand location, guests can even walk through the infamous wedding chapel doors, just like Ross and Rachel, and see a replica of Joey's iconic gladiator costume from the Vegas episodes. Adding to the "Friends" fun, the Smelly Cat Karaoke Bar has officially opened its doors at the Grand Bazaar Shops on the Las Vegas Strip. This spot offers nonstop energy and performances.

Looking for a bit of magic? The David Blaine: Live in Las Vegas at Encore Theater at Wynn Las Vegas announced a nine-show extension of his critically acclaimed production. Summer performances include the following dates: Wednesday, July 23, and Friday, July 25 to Saturday, July 26.

Dining hot spots

Las Vegas's dining scene is constantly innovating, with a fresh lineup of new culinary hot spots, summer prix fixe menus, and more.

Looking for burgers and over-the-top milkshakes? Holsteins Shakes & Buns is adding a brand-new location in the heart of the Arts District.

Foodies can also explore a Mediterranean dining experience at Zaytinya, a fresh addition that debuted in May at The Forum Shops at Caesars Palace. Under the direction of chef José Andrés, it features dishes rooted in the rich culinary traditions of Turkey, Greece, and Lebanon.

Several MGM Resorts restaurants are offering special prix fixe menu options for brunch, lunch, and dinner, starting Friday, June 13. Participating restaurants include Harvest at Bellagio Resort

MASTERS : TECHNOLOGY

GIARDINA GROUP

GiardinaGroup is a world leader in finishing technologies for wood, glass, composite materials, plastics and metal. It is born from the merger of Mauri Machine and Giardina Finishing, both of which were founded in the early 1970's. It also includes the very recent acquisition of De Stefani, which added 40 years of sanding experience from the company, based in Birone di Giussano (Monza Brianza).

GiardinaGroup specializes in the design, development and production of machines. We do complete installations for roller coating, curtain and spray coating; automated and robotized lines with hot air, UV or micro-wave drying systems; overhead lines for painting window frames or three-dimensional pieces, spray booths, and sanding solutions for edges, profiles and surfaces.

GiardinaGroup has two main manufacturing sites: In January 2018 all the production activities connected with finishing were brought together in the large space in Figino Serenza (Como, Italy), the historical site of Giardina Finishing, whereas the design and manufacturing of the sanding solutions will still go on in the De Stefani facilities in Birone di Giussano (Monza Brianza).

Fair

Wakuda welcome cocktail.

Pisces Bar and Seafare made its May debut at Wynn Las Vegas on the resort's iconic Lake of Dreams. The restaurant celebrates the distinctive cuisine of the Mediterranean coast with a menu from executive chef Martin Heierling, including caviar and crudo, dry-aged fish, bountiful seafood platters, and fresh pasta.

The Venetian Resort Las Vegas debuted Via Via Food Hall. Located right off the iconic Grand Colonnade, this food hall brings together the diverse culinary scenes of New York, New Orleans, Los Angeles, and more for a truly immersive experience reminiscent of the meandering streets of Venice.

Coffee and a chat with a multi-decade AWFS Fair attendee

You never know who you are going to meet at a trade show, especially one with such a storied history as the AWFS Fair.

Over coffee at the Dunkin' at the Las Vegas Convention Center, I got a chance to meet a long-time attendee who was catching his wind after hiking over from his hotel.

His name is Zen Barelka. While not technically a professional woodworker, he has been coming to AWFS Fair for 30 years and his passion for woodworking stems even further back.

Lately, he has been coming to AWFS Fair in support of a San Diego high-school woodshop, as well as his work as a volunteer and member of a woodworking association.

Barelka, who retired from a career as an electronics designer specializing in high-speed wireless networking and medical electronics, began woodworking as a hobby from junior high shop classes. It has evolved over the years into a passion. He values woodworking for its mental engagement and craftsmanship, enjoying the social aspect and access to advanced tools.

"I try to support a local high school, and I belong to a toy-making group that makes toys for children," he said. "Right now, the project that I want to get done before school starts is to upgrade their dust collection system. The dust collection is not working very well. I hope to be able to do something about that."

He is a member of the 40-year old San Diego Fine Wood-workers Association, which participates in the notable Design-In Wood exhibition at the San Diego County Fair. The group has about 1,000 members, and operates a 5,200-square-foot wood shop with plans to expand by another 5,000 square feet.

It hosts classes and makes toys for children in a well-equipped shop that includes two sets of woodworking tools such as joiners, planers, table saws, lathes, sanders, as well as digital woodworking tools including CNC routers, a Shaper Origin portable system and 3D printers. With the planned growth, he said, they have space to fill with more equipment.

It's an active group that makes about 3,500 toys a year are given away to children in need. "The toys go in two directions. We give toys to missionaries that distribute them all over the world, and we also make toys for a prison ministry that gives the toys to children who are in prison."

At the San Diego Fine Woodworkers Association men and women of all skill levels can take classes and network with others interested in woodworking.

Woodworking Network editor embarks on Tool Tour

Online Editor Larry Adams set off on his Tool Tour Adventure at AWFS Fair 2025 with his first punch from Blum at booth 3901. He learned you "Gotta punch 'em all."

In the first morning, he made nine Tool Tour stops learning about new tools, safety equipment, abrasives, Japanese-style knives, digital templating, and more. Now that he's got these companies punched — with fancy holes such as a maple leaf, butterfly, paw print and snowflake — Adams is ready to go out and get the remaining 16 punch holes on his tour card while learning about the companies' products on display.

Field trip offers key insights

Matt Buell of M. Buell Studio and a contributor to Woodworking Network, led attendees on the "Getting Started in the Industry" field trip. The stops were carefully curated to help people identify areas that are consuming the most time for businesses getting started in this industry, and to provide them with quick solutions and establish rapport with companies for better long-term results for their products.

It was the first field trip of the conference.

Everyone had an opportunity to explore various pathways into the industry and spend time networking with vendors, Buell said.

AWFS[®] Fresh Wood finalists at the AWFS Fair

Students from across the nation entered and finalists now have their projects on display at the AWFS Fair.

This year's competition features pieces in five categories: Seating, Tables, Case Goods, Design for Production, and Open.

Wood industry experts will judge the finalists, and prizes will be awarded on Thursday, July 24, at the AWFS Fair Live Stage.

Flexible, Scalable, and Ready to Spray: Introducing the Flex Spray Station™

The Flex Spray Station™ from Guffey Systems sets a new standard in convenience and flexibility for your finishing process. Arriving fully assembled on locking casters, this self-contained spray booth can be rolled into place and readied for use in under half a day.

Fully Assembled and Quick Setup

- Arrives ready to roll and can be operational within half a day

Scalable for Growth

- Easily add more mobile rails, hangers, and accessories to expand your system for increased production volumes

Industrial-Grade Construction

- Constructed with durable high-quality steel and aluminum materials

Built for Flexibility

- Its innovative recirculating design means no ductwork is needed for water-based coatings. Solvent-based coatings require venting to the outside, so we offer easy-to-install wall/roof ventilation kits
